THE BEACHES

You can't visit Dorset without a trip to at least one of our amazing beaches...

SANDBANKS

Poole & Bournemouth Beaches

Sandbanks may be one of the most famous beaches in the area but there are plenty of other glorious sandy beaches in the area including Bournemouth Beach, Branksome Chine & Friars Cliff.

Think beach huts, sandy beaches and watersports.

WEYMOUTH

Weymouth Beach & Harbour

A 3 mile stretch of glorious sandy beaches in a classic seaside town with plenty of entertainment, shops and eateries just yards from the sand.

When the sun goes down head to Weymouth Harbor for a delicious fresh seafood supper and watch the boats come in.

STUDLAND & SWANAGE

The Isle of Purbeck's Sandy Beaches

View Old Harry Rocks from Studland's fine sandy beaches & is a haven for nature with little else around apart from a couple of beach sheds serving basic fayre.

If you are looking for a bit more activity head to Swanage which has a lively atmosphere close to the sands, with plenty of shops, restaurants. You can even hire a beach hut.

LULWORTH COVE & DURDLÉ DOOR

The Isle of Purbeck's Shingle Beaches

Some of Dorset's most iconic landmarks are a must see when staying here and are great for a spot of sunbathing as well as walking when the weather is not quite so fair.

While Durdle Door is quiet, Lulworth is a thriving seaside village with shops, pubs and more.

WEST BAY

Bridport's Jurassic Coast

Made famous by Broadchurch West Bay is a must visit with two shingle and pebble beaches and it is a great spot for some sea fishing.

The harbor is filled with some fantastic pubs, seafood restaurants and cafe but if it is a cheap eat your after head to one of the traditional fish & chips or ice cream huts and head for a bench and enjoy the view.

If it's fossils you're after head to Charmouth & Lyme Regis, renowned as the best hunting ground. Can't decide where to go? We'll be happy to help!
