A Clucking Good Hen Do

If your Hen is a classy chick who up for an adventure with some sophistication you have come to the right place!

If you've found us - you must be planning a hen do!

But if you're after a stripper, shiny sashes and a pink limo you might just have come to the wrong place...

But if its adventure, fun, class, craft, sophistication (and of course some cocktails and fizz you're after stick around!

At Stock Gaylard all our glamping sites are completely private for you and your party, and a good walk away from any other site so no need to worry if you fancy singing Britney into the late night hours!

Our camps can sleep between 10-14 hens! And all come with their own private bathrooms, showers & baths.

The best bit is they all have great communal spaces for you all to get together both inside and out. Whether your making cocktails in our large living yurts or cooking up a storm on the top-deck of our double decker bus you can all do it together.

There is so much to do near Stock Gaylard with watersports, outdoor pursuits like archery, quad biking and more, craft classes and some great local restaurants and pubs.

But the best part of hosting at Stock Gaylard is we can bring it all to you! From cocktail making and private dining to craft sessions, yoga and axe throwing we've got it covered!
